Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Captain Cotton,

This cancellation would reduce the number of members attending the event on the 16th to 10. There will be no specific need for a snacks/drinks cooler and these members can eat at the cafeteria. Let me know should you need further.

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Good Afternoon Margo,

After seeing and walking the space, I don't think we can allow another row of portable toilets. Since this is a state employee parking area, they must be able to get to work, leave for lunch, and leave for the day with relative ease. Also, there is the road work on Lane street to consider. I understand that it is a much larger crowd than anticipated; however, it will be regrettably impossible to provide enough facilities for all to use without any inconvenience. Hopefully, it will all go smoothly without too many issues. I apologize for any inconvenience.

Good evening, this is Bill Harrison, superintendent for Alamance-Burlington Schools calling to let you know that, schools will be closed for students on Wednesday, May 16. It will be an optional teacher workday. I am sure you have heard about the March for Students and Rally for Respect event that is scheduled to occur in Raleigh on May 16 that will involve teachers and education supporters across the state.

All week, we have been closely monitoring the number of requests for personal leave by our staff members. Even though May 16th was scheduled as an early release day for students, at this time, we do not feel that we will be able to operate schools safely and efficiently and offer the best educational experience for our students with the level of staff and substitutes that we will have available.

I wanted to let you know as soon as possible so that you could make plans for your children to be out of school next Wednesday. Students will not make up this missed day. Thank you for your continued support and I apologize for the inconvenience to your family.

This e-mail has been sent to you by ALAMANCE-BURLINGTON SCHOOL SYSTEM. To maximize their communication with you, you may be receiving this e-mail in addition to a phone call with the same message. Monday numbers: Gerrymandering in North Carolina

By Melissa Boughton <<https://default.salsalabs.org/Tb86ffb73-671c-4300-a474-1891d3074d5f/82df15ba-8870-419b-9b05-30fead2a93e4>>

Hundreds of North Carolinians turned out over the weekend to run a jagged race around downtown Raleigh <<http://commoncausenc.org/run/>> in an effort to raise awareness about gerrymandering. It's an issue that has plagued the state for years. Here are some numbers to provide further context:

7 — the number of redistricting bills that have been filed this decade in the General Assembly calling for an independent redistricting commission or impartial process blind of political consideration

0 — the number of times a redistricting bill has been heard in a House or Senate committee under House Speaker Tim Moore's and Senate President Pro Tem Phil Berger's respective reigns

4 — the number of times Moore sponsored redistricting reform while a member of the minority party

5 — the number of times Berger sponsored redistricting reform while a member of the minority party

2 — the number of times Sen. Thom Tillis sponsored redistricting reform while serving in the North Carolina General Assembly

1 — the number of times a legislative chamber has passed a bipartisan redistricting reform bill (in 2011, Moore and Tillis —who was speaker at the time — voted for it) [Read more <<https://default.salsalabs.org/Te15030b0-1b0f-400c-a895-7829a0b6898c/82df15ba-8870-419b-9b05-30fead2a93e4>>...]

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

All Employees/Staff: This message is for your situational awareness only.

Background: The NC Association of Educators (NCAE) is organizing a "March for Students and Rally for Respect" which will take place on Wednesday, May 16, 2016 in downtown Raleigh. To date 26 school districts across North Carolina have cancelled classes. 15,000 teachers and educators have signed up to attend the events on Wednesday, which will make this the largest act of organized teacher political action in state history.

Event: According to NCAE, teachers will meet at the NCAE Headquarters on Salisbury Street at 10 a.m. and starting at 10:30 march to the Legislative Building on Jones Street. The Rally for Respect is scheduled to begin at 3:30 and will take place on Bicentennial Plaza.

Risk: We anticipate this event will draw a lot of attention from both the public and media. We are not anticipating any disruptions in our work environment however, we want to inform employees who work in the building of potential concerns surrounding the event.

- Due to the large number of attendees, traffic and parking in the downtown area are expected to be significantly impacted and restricted

- The actions of these individuals may unintentionally disrupt our normal operations by limiting movement into and out of our building for staff and visitors

Steps being taken by management:

- City of Raleigh and State Capitol Police are preparing to provide an increased security presence during event including:
- Additional uniformed officers to assist and manage visitors/crowds
- Assist in managing pedestrian and vehicle traffic

Steps you can take during event:

- Anticipate increased traffic and congestion when commuting to and from work and plan accordingly
- If you park in the lot behind the building and someone has parked in your space, call State Capitol Police dispatch at 919-733-3333 and they can have the vehicle towed
- Large crowds may make it difficult to find lunch at usual downtown locations
- Be alert to visitors who may have wandered into the building and offer to help them return to the lobby

Additional questions should be directed to your Supervisor or to myself.

Thanks for your attention to these recommendations.

Captain Pope,

FYSA, it is increasingly looking as though we'll end up having to activate this squad to report to Field Ops. I'll let you know something solid tomorrow.

Thanks

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

Weekly Briefing:

Process schmocess: Berger, Moore say 2019 budget changes have already been negotiated

By Rob Schofield <<https://default.salsalabs.org/Ta3101d1a-2fd0-439c-936b-b552579ff85b/82df15ba-8870-419b-9b05-30fead2a93e4>>

For those who pay only periodic attention to the ins and outs of lawmaking in the North Carolina General Assembly, there was a powerful reminder last week of just how broken things are and how cloistered and detached the conservative powers-that-be in the state Legislative Building have become after several years of unfettered rule.

It happened last Monday when Senate President Pro Tem Phil Berger took to Twitter <<https://twitter.com/SenatorBerger/status/993582792033390592?eType=EmailBlastContent&eId=286d9701-87a9-4099-98ef-82a9bd7a0874>> to proclaim and celebrate the fact that he and House Speaker Tim Moore had – 10 days prior to the commencement of the 2018 legislative session – reached agreement on the amount the state will spend in its Fiscal Year 2019 budget that starts July 1.

Berger tweeted: “#Breaking: strong revenue numbers enabled @NCHouseSpeaker and me to reach agreement on a $23.917 billion spending target for the FY 2018-19 budget.”

Think for a moment about Berger’s pronouncement and its implications: the most powerful man in the state legislature has chosen to inform his 10 million fellow North Carolinians via a Trump-like tweet that what is almost certainly the most important decision to be rendered by the 170 Senators and Representatives who represent them each year has, for 2018, already been made – behind closed doors.

This year’s legislative session may be about to get underway with its usual helpings of pomp, speechmaking, committee meetings, floor debate, press conferences, and, as it turns out, one of the most extraordinary public demonstrations in decades <<http://www.ncpolicywatch.com/2018/05/10/teachers-advocates-may-16th-shaping-up-as-an-historic-day-for-public-education-in-nc/>> when as many as 20,000 school teachers descend on Raleigh on Wednesday, but as far as Berger and Moore are concerned, the most important decision has already been made based on secret negotiations between two men representing a relative handful of constituents in Rockingham and Cleveland counties.

The only thing almost as maddening as the utter lack of process and transparency in the Berger-Moore secret budget deal is the general lack of outrage it seems to have provoked in the mostly somnambulant and cynical cadre of legislators, reporters, lobbyists, legislative staff, agency officials and other assorted hangers-on who comprise the “in” legislative crowd.

“Great!” seems to be the common and troubling reaction one hears in and around downtown Raleigh. “Now we know the session will be a short one and we won't have to worry about disrupted summer vacation plans!"

Pardon me for not celebrating what is, in fact, a travesty and an example of governance at its worst. [Read more <<https://default.salsalabs.org/T7db4c974-eea1-4202-9357-23d69ad71d35/82df15ba-8870-419b-9b05-30fead2a93e4>>...]

Trooper Reyes,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troop Commanders,

The attached correspondence from Field Operations is being provided for your information and proper action.

The North Carolina Association of Educators has planned a rally, march, and Legislative discussion on 16 May 2018 in downtown Raleigh. To assist Raleigh PD, State Capitol PD, and the Legislative PD, the Patrol will stand up 3 traffic squads. Assigned members are not required to be MFF trained for this event.

Reporting instructions for Troop B and Troop D Squads:

All assigned members shall report to Captain T. E. Robinson at the Patrol Training Academy in Building 4 Classroom 1 at 0830 hours for briefing and assignment. The uniform of the day will be the issued Class A uniform.

Members should be reminded that this event will likely not end until late evening and they should be prepared for such. These members will be fed, as well as provided snacks, water, and drinks, by the Training Academy and these members may be well served to bring a cooler for these items. Members will be required to carpool from the briefing to a yet to be determined staging area downtown.

The Troop C Squad will remain in an emergency response (stand-by) status for the duration of the event.

Troops are requested to respond, utilizing their respective attached ICS-205A, with their assigned member's information to Field Operations no later than the close of business on 9 May 2018.

Further information will be forwarded upon receipt and inquiries may be directed to this office.

By Amanda Lamb, WRAL reporter

Raleigh, N.C. </news-near-me/13696752/?map_asset_id=17555968> — Two State Highway Patrol troopers and a Wake County deputy were indicted Tuesday in the beating of a Raleigh man last month.

Troopers Michael Blake and Tabitha Davis and Deputy Cameron Broadwell were each indicted on charges of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury and willfully failing to discharge duties. Broadwell also was indicted on a charge of assault inflicting serious bodily injury.

Kyron Dwain Hinton, 29, of 3033 Poole Road, was arrested on April 3 while walking home from a sweepstakes parlor.

According to an arrest warrant, Hinton was yelling in the roadway at North Raleigh Boulevard and Yonkers Road, implying he had a gun and pointing his hand in the air as if he had a firearm in it. The warrant states that he ignored commands to get on the ground, physically resisted officers when being handcuffed and hit a police dog on the head and face.

Hinton, who was unarmed, said he was approached by several State Highway Patrol troopers and Raleigh police officers who pushed him up against a patrol car and beat him up while a Wake County Sheriff's Office K-9 bit him on his right arm, side and head.

He said he suffered a broken eye socket, broken nose, multiple cuts on his head, "probably 20 bite marks" and memory loss as a result of the incident.

The indictments allege Broadwell beat and kicked Hinton and Blake and Davis hit him with their flashlights. All three are accused of violating the Highway Patrol's and the Wake County Sheriff's Office's use-of-force policies, and Broadwell also is accused of improper handling of his K-9.

Wake County District Attorney Lorrin Freeman last week dismissed charges of disorderly conduct, resisting a public officer and assault on a law enforcement animal against Hinton while the State Bureau of Investigation looked into his excessive force allegations.

The last time a Wake County law enforcement officer faced criminal charges connected to on-duty actions was 2006, when three deputies were charged with misdemeanor assault

By Amanda Lamb, WRAL reporter

Raleigh, N.C. </news-near-me/13696752/?map_asset_id=17555968> — Two State Highway Patrol troopers and a Wake County deputy were indicted Tuesday in the beating of a Raleigh man last month.

Troopers Michael Blake and Tabitha Davis and Deputy Cameron Broadwell were each indicted on charges of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury and willfully failing to discharge duties. Broadwell also was indicted on a charge of assault inflicting serious bodily injury.

Kyron Dwain Hinton, 29, of 3033 Poole Road, was arrested on April 3 while walking home from a sweepstakes parlor.

According to an arrest warrant, Hinton was yelling in the roadway at North Raleigh Boulevard and Yonkers Road, implying he had a gun and pointing his hand in the air as if he had a firearm in it. The warrant states that he ignored commands to get on the ground, physically resisted officers when being handcuffed and hit a police dog on the head and face.

Hinton, who was unarmed, said he was approached by several State Highway Patrol troopers and Raleigh police officers who pushed him up against a patrol car and beat him up while a Wake County Sheriff's Office K-9 bit him on his right arm, side and head.

He said he suffered a broken eye socket, broken nose, multiple cuts on his head, "probably 20 bite marks" and memory loss as a result of the incident.

The indictments allege Broadwell beat and kicked Hinton and Blake and Davis hit him with their flashlights. All three are accused of violating the Highway Patrol's and the Wake County Sheriff's Office's use-of-force policies, and Broadwell also is accused of improper handling of his K-9.

Wake County District Attorney Lorrin Freeman last week dismissed charges of disorderly conduct, resisting a public officer and assault on a law enforcement animal against Hinton while the State Bureau of Investigation looked into his excessive force allegations.

The last time a Wake County law enforcement officer faced criminal charges connected to on-duty actions was 2006, when three deputies were charged with misdemeanor assault

March for Students Rally for Respect Executive Summary 15May181300.pdf

March for Students/Rally for Respect Timeline

March Logistics:

March will begin at 16 May at 1030 at the NCAE Center at 700 S. Salisbury St. and proceed down the sidewalk of Fayetteville Street, across the Capitol Grounds (sidewalks only), down Bicentennial Plaza and then to the Legislative Buildings.

- On the sidewalks, the permit requires that a lane remain open for other pedestrians closer to the buildings and that participants are as close to the street as possible without being in the street.
- Given the expected size of the crowd, Raleigh Police may split groups of 100 to get across the streets.

General Assembly Logistics:

House and Senate sessions begin at 1200. Educators and community supporters will gather in the galleries, the third floor rotunda, the second floor rotunda, and other areas to greet lawmakers as they enter the chambers for session.

- General Assembly rules state that participants cannot be disruptive and cannot impede the movement of others in the building.
- There will be metal detectors upon entering. This will cut down the number of entry points significantly. Given the expected size of participants, there will be significant waiting and increase the chance that some will not be in the building by noon.

Rally Logistics:

The rally begins at 1530. Participants will start convening in Bicentennial Plaza Mall (in front of Legislative Building) beginning around

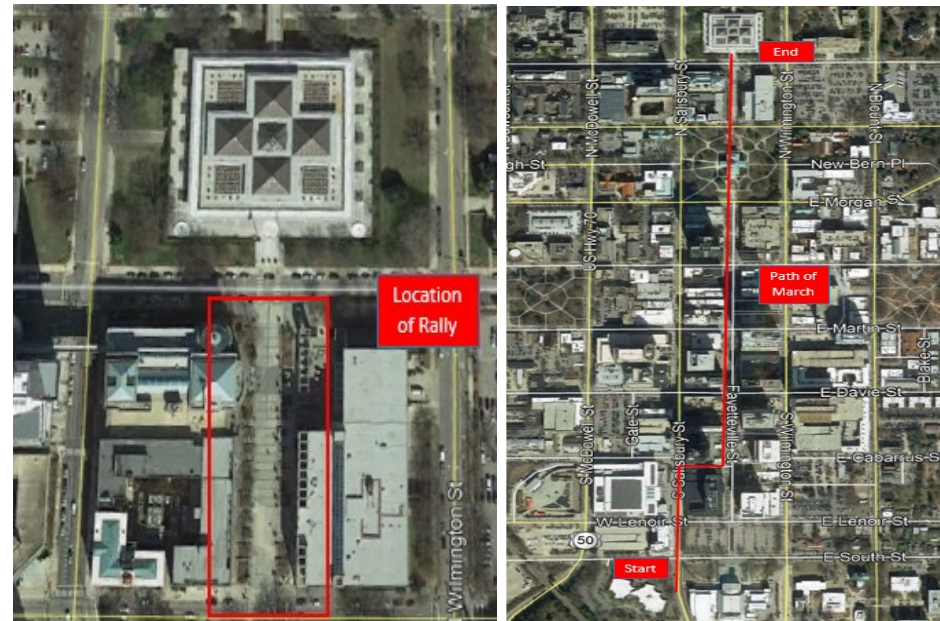

- 3 p.m. Expect a maximum crowd at 3:30 p.m.
- Participants will begin setting up staging around 1 p.m.

State Declarations: None

State Emergency Operations Center Activation: Level 5

North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE) Platform

The purpose of March for Students, Rally for Respect is to hold elected leaders accountable for prioritizing corporate tax cuts, instead of classrooms. The ultimate goal is to elect more pro-public education leaders in North Carolina and to have long-term, sustainable victories so our state can return as a beacon for public schools.
